The above fees do not include disbursements, such as

- photocopying @ 10p per page;
- special and recorded delivery postal charges at the Royal Mail rates;
- courier fees;
- travel or accommodation costs;
- translation fees;
- identity checks;
- any other miscellaneous costs (to be agreed).

The above fees do not include professional disbursements such as Counsel's fees, expert fees, fees of chartered accountants and medical experts. These are to be sourced and agreed with you on a case by case basis. We work with highly reputable specialist experts and barristers.

Those making immigration, nationality and EU law applications will be required to pay Home Office fees, Immigration Health Surcharge and fees chargeable for standard, priority and super priority services. Applications for asylum do not attract Home Office fees. Home Office fees and surcharges vary depending on the type of application and immigration category.

The Home Office engages the services of third-party commercial partners. These official partners charge additional fees for their services. These are clearly set out on their respective websites and are payable as part of the application process.

We engage the services of interpreters and translators from third-party providers. Interpreters' fees are chargeable on an hourly basis. Translators' fees are chargeable on a per word basis. We will source quotes from reputable agencies in the UK and abroad to be agreed with you. Documents which are not in the English language will need to be translated and certified in the format required by the Home Office.
